

Kingston Cursive

HANDWRITING

by Paula Morse

A complete cursive handwriting scheme for mainstream use but with particular benefits for pupils with reading and spelling difficulties. Evolved over a period of ten years at the Kingston Reading Centre and easily adaptable to styles already in use.

Set of 3 BooksFOUNDATIONS OF THE PROGRAMME £9.00

An introduction to the teaching strategies and resources of the Kingston Programme and a practical teachers' guide for implementing the handwriting scheme. The shape and formation of each individual letter is explained and commented on in detail.

HANDWRITING FOR BEGINNERS £15.00

Photocopiable work sheets, which start with movement patterns and progress to specific letters. At the introduction of each letter a sound-symbol relationship is introduced as an aid to both spelling and reading. A4. 85 pp, wire bound.

HANDWRITING COPY BOOK £15.00

Individual letter practice sheets showing sound-symbol relationships, followed by carefully ordered copy sheets for joining practice. Each sheet introduces a new letter and letters already learned are listed at the top of each sheet. Later sheets introduce complete sentences and capital letters. A4. Wire bound. 70 pp.
